“ Sorry to learn just now, four years late, that Bob died. He and I were the best of friends for a time many years ago when we were both at Transfiguration elementary school. I can still recall calling for him at his house, the old rectory that had been moved across the street from the church. Lots of kids in his family. I remember too that his dad did some electrical work for my family when we were finishing a part of our basement. A good guy, remembered fondly. Jim Czerwionka

“ I would like to express our deepest condolences to the family. I was surprised and saddened. I will remember Bob as being a very loving and caring man towards his family. He would often speak of how proud he was of his children and his family. He was easy to like and talk to on a variety of topics. I will miss our conversations.

“ I'm grateful for the Dad's weekends where Eric and Brian shared their Dad (and Lonnie shared his uncle) with me at Illinois. Just like you guys did, Bob always made me feel like family. I look forward to seeing him upstairs after I finish my time down here. - Wyatt Schupbach

“ I will always remember the many days we shared at your home. Countless Sundays and summer days our family would travel to Bourbonnais usually with my Dad's tools in hand and some kind of project plans. Aunt Marion prepared gourmet meals for the hard working grown-ups and the highly energetic kids playing in the backyard pool. Uncle Bob and I had many conversations when I was younger about really nothing in particular but I do remember he was quite the salesman. You were required to explain the financial benefit of selling gift wrap for your school's fundraiser and he willingly shared many tips on how to sell more...despite the fact that it was now bedtime. Today, I am grateful for the experience and the memories of my childhood. I will remember your contribution and I hope to surround my family with the same love, passion and support. You will be missed.
