“ I'm so sorry to hear of Steve's passing. I grew up with Steve and honestly I'm not proud of my not treating him as nice as I could and should have. It's tough to admit one's flaws but not showing as much care, compassion and just fairness to others was a flaw of mine. I do remember Steve as always being positive. I also remember his mom, as I think his mom and my mom were friends. In that later years, I'd often see Steve's posts on facebook and just kind words he'd share with others. I want to say Steve thank you. Thank you for being a better person and showing more care for so many others, than I showed towards you in our youth. You will be missed and those that you touched are so blessed to have shared in your warmth and positive soul. RIP and soar with the angels.

“ I'm in total shock. Steve and I grew up together and we both were Washington state patrol explorers together. Steve was the nicest guy ever and loved to joke around with people. Steve when my time comes, I'll find you upstairs and we can reunite and hang out. I'm so sorry for his family. If you need anything, you let me know. My sincere condolences

“ I worked with Steve for a few years at R &L. He was a fun guy and always joked with me. Imagine my surprise when a few years ago he brought in chocolate covered peanut butter balls that he had made himself. Not that it's odd that a man can bake but he didn't come across as someone that would. He was always full of surprises. My condolences go out to his family. He will be missed.
