“ I first met Barb after she returned from Japan, we worked together til she retired and remained close after. We used to joke that we were sisters in a previous life. She was a very special woman who was always there for me. My life was better because she was my friend. I'll miss you terribly. Thoughts and prayers with you Vince and Tyler

“ I remember Barb when she was a little girl of 12 ,battling ovarian cancer. She was very sick with her chemo and begged her Mom to tell the Doctors no more. Her Mom made the decision to continue treatment. It was a terrible decision for a mother to make but she lived a long time after that. I loved Barb's laugh and beautiful smile. I am shocked by her death. My deepest condolences to all her family. May God grant her eternal rest.

“ The first time I met Barbara she was 8 years old. People said if Barbara likes her she is ok. If Barbara doesn't like her that's that. Barbara climbed up on my lap and stayed there the whole evening! We bonded immediately. What a special angel...I am truly blessed to have known her! Miss you girl! Ruthie
