“ Beverly, Beverly, Beverly, how do I begin to share just how much you touched my  and life. Since the day you moved in we became “thick as thieves”. We felt like we knew each other for years. I loved you with my  & soul! Our little family miss our many, many outings:

- St. Vincent’s (UR fav place)
- DG; Goodwill
- Dollar Tree •Kroger/Jewel/Meijer’s/Aldi
- Wally World (as you called it)
- breakfast at Bev’s outside Bistro (known as Bev’s new home @ 108 E
- Midgie’s sleepovers
- Briella & Midgie’s daily treat visits
- our in depth conversations about Politics, the state of our country, your goals, your challenges and our blessings of God connecting us so closely in such a short time.

Bob has known you longer as you met at BINGO Wednesday’s. He often talked about you and then when he heard you were moving in a few units away from us he was ecstatic. We loved you dearly.

Beverly was truly an Angel here on earth  one a kind & a blessing to many.

We am grateful for every moment she was in our lives. She will forever hold a special place in our .

Until we meet again I know you will always be near as you graduated from Angel here on Earth  to Angel in Heaven

“ Oh how sad my heart is.

Over the last 10 years Bev and I have been as close as sisters. We have shared the good with the bad, health issues, lots of laughter, and also tears. We've played Scrabble we have played cards, dice and all sorts of strange, miscellaneous games. we have spoke on the phone almost every day if we didn't spend actual time together.

My heart will grieve for my friend for a very long time. Bev you will be missed. Thank you for being a very good friend.
