“ Brian played basketball for me and added so much to his team: Districts, County, and State champs. We played also at "Shoot the Bull" in Chicago. He added so much and will be missed. Thank you for allowing me to be part of your life. I will miss us.

“ Disbelief. When Tim and I heard the news it was hard to comprehend. We still remember the smiling, giggling Boy Scout. The kid our son hung around with at church. Brian was always happy and fun. We saw him two years ago at Walmart buying a present for Madison. He was so proud of her! Our hearts go out to Robbie and Sharon. This is just so hard to grasp.

“ Me, you, your brother and my Dad played a lot of games of horse when we were kids. You were always the smiling one that loved to have fun. Having you as my next door neighbor made it better and I'll never forget you my ole friend. Heaven sure is gaining some great people lately. God bless you and your family, Brian.

“ Hey Momma K where's my hug? And here he would come jogging across the street to collect. Virtually every post about his passing starts with ' Brian has been my best friend since.....' It is a very special man who can have that many best friends.
I will miss your smile and wave, your kindness, and your offers to help. Most of all I will miss those hugs! I love you sweet boy♡
