

Carol Kay Davenport

October 24, 1938 - May 7, 2020

Carol Kay Davenport, 81, of Kankakee, passed away Thursday, May 7, 2020, peacefully at her daughter's home in Bradley.

She was born October 24, 1938 in Independence, Missouri, a daughter of Richard and Genevieve (Allen) Coble. On September 4, 1959 she married George Russell Davenport at the First Baptist Church in Independence, Missouri. She was a retired Registered Nurse and was very involved in church in her younger days. She enjoyed painting, sewing, and puzzles.

Carol is survived by her loving husband, George; her three children, Karen (Dale) Johnson of Bradley; David Davenport of Collierville, TN , and Paul (Michelle) Davenport of Sparks, Nevada; nine grandchildren, nine great grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild.

She is preceded in death by her parents, brother, sister, and 1 great granddaughter.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Carol Kay Davenport

October 08, 2023 at 04:39 PM

“ I have had a few treasured memories with this dear friend !! We shared things what happened in our lifetimes with many similarities. She was always willing to listen I will miss this time !! Very happy that she is at peace !!

Donna Zomick - May 25, 2020 at 06:48 PM

“ Carol was a very sweet caring lady.. I am so lucky to have had the opportunity to share our love of painting together,,she always took pride in each and every picture she did....The best part of our painting sessions were that Karen sat right alongside of her Mom and painted with her ..we shared so many laughs I will cherish forever...I am so so sorry for your enormous loss...she was one of the very best..<3

Tracey Peterson - May 20, 2020 at 02:46 AM

“ *Great card player and bingo player also very kind person with great smile
Bingo caller Brian*

Brian Hebert - May 19, 2020 at 05:31 PM