“ I couldn't believe this tragedy when you called me Dave. Thank you so much for calling. I'm going to miss our little chats on messenger with the two of you. If you ever feel like talking to a friend don't hesitate to give me a call. If you ever want to get away for a bit you know our house is always open!! Take care

“ Your grandma was the most caring and loving persons I've ever worked with. She would light up when my class came to her for lunch and would sing a nursery rhyme or Christmas song to her and the other lunch-teachers. She was a teacher everyday to every student she fed.

“ No words can express what a loss she is. Cheryl was such a sweet one and gates opened up for her along time ago when she dated my dad. Which is where is picture comes from. We always giggle about it. It was a crazy time for us 3 girls. Parents with different people then mom and dad together. Wish we would of stayed closer. Sending my love & Big hugs to all of you. So sorry for your loss!! I was always happy to see Cheryl at my aunt Connie's house!! Deepest sympathy and love ❤️
