“ There aren't words to describe this wonderful man nor the sadness that fills my heart over our great loss of him in our physical world. There isn't a memory in my entire life that he and Aunt May weren't part of or shared with... good and bad. They were and have always been there for me. He is Uncle Chet to so many of my friends, they adopted everyone you see, as they're own family. He was Uncle noogie to me as a child, we were the best of buddies, everytime we would say goodbye we would give each other a noogie and he said that's how he lost all his hair, I noogied it all off. When I would give him a haircut, he would say, just a little off the top please. He was so funny and so filled with life and joy. His laugh infectious. He gave the best hugs, they were strong and true, but also so gentle to the touch. They made you feel so loved and safe.

He became Papa chet to my kids. He loved them so much and so strong. They love him so much, he is their Papa Chet now and forever.

He was such a hard worker, amazing work ethic. He was so sweet, caring, and thoughtful. He was an artist, at so many crafty things, he poured his heart and soul into, every piece of art he made was a rare and special gift. He was an amazing puppy dad, no one else loved their dogs more than he and May. Those were their babies and it was amazing to witness the love and joy each pup had with them. I have so many memories of doing yard work with him, doing pool work with him, talking computer talk with him, he loved and did so many awesome, cool things. He knew so many things, he was so smart.

May and Chet, its really hard to imagine one without the other.

Literally like one name or one word. Im so sorry for the loss of this wonderful joyous man in our lives. It is not goodbye its see you later. I know youre all around us still. But it is so very hard.

Thank you for being an extra father figure in my life always. Thank you for adopting me as your own ever since my youngest childhood memories. Thank you for being such an amazing love to my dear sweet aunt may. Thank you for loving her so much. Thank you for being an amazing example in my life of what true love is in your marriage and relationship with May. Thank you for being silly always making us laugh. Thank you for being support in good and bad times. Thank you for so much I cant even list it all.

Love you so much and thank you so much. You will be missed every moment of everyday until we meet again, Im sending you a spiritual noogie, and a big, amazing, gentle Uncle Chet hug. Please rub the pupperry bellies for me, and give them some pets from me as well.

“ Chet and May. May and Chet. Hard to imagine one without the other. Although we didn't see much of each other, they have always been very dear to my heart. Chet, no other man that walks this earth can compare to you. You are top notch. We lost a great man but heaven is rejoicing gaining you. Until we meet again my friend. May, my heart is with you. I know there will be hard days ahead. Love you like a sister. I'll see you soon. B
