“ *Chris, did have a way of making you feel welcome,
I know his Sister and Brother have many GOOD memories, that they'll have to use to handle this, having LOVED ONES, taken out of our lives is unbearable without them, first hand experience there,
I LOVE MY Husband, and his family and am SO SORRY they have to have these feelings
See You in ETERNITY, BROTHER-IN-LAW*

“ Chris and I met when I was 12 and he was either 15 or 16. My family moved from Blue Island to Hazel Crest the summer of 1975. We moved in one house away from Chris and his family. I have so many memories I could write a book...lol! Chris was a great person and a wonderful friend to so many.

A few weeks back my brother Craig and Heather came up for a visit. I made dinner at my brother's house (everyone survived as I am not a cook)...lol! We have a very nice visit and even played poker. I am so very happy that we got to spend that day together and he was feeling pretty good that day.

Chris, may you Rest in Peace. You fought a hard battle, and as devastated as we all our that you are no longer here, there is solace in knowing that you are no longer in pain.

Rest Easy my friend. May you find joy, peace and comfort in our Father's House.

When I think of you I'll be listening for your voice calling to me from outside my bedroom window like you did a thousand times before. Now I am crying...

I love you - you were a brother to me. So many friendships came out of that neighborhood in Hazel Crest - friendships that lasted a life time. How Lucky We All Are to Have Had Each Other all these Years.

There are no goodbyes, I'll see you later and I know you will be there to greet me.

“ I first met Chris when he was 4 or 5. He used to sit on the porch and I would come out and talk to him. He would complain about being on by his brothers. He lived on the second floor of my parent's building. After Chris and his family moved out to Hazel Crest I stayed in touch with them. I spent many weekends out there playing cards with Chris his mom and Rick. Great memories. Chris was a groomsman at my wedding. He looked so dashing in his tux. Chris his mom, Kim, Rick, Lon, and Steve will always be a special part of my life
