“ One of the best memories I have working with Chris was coming back from vacation to find my office "re-arranged". When I asked him about it, he denied it. So I just smiled and said, "Ok. Next time you might want to tell Kayla not to leave a note saying "Your dogs are cute." He looked at me like I don't know if you're serious or bluffing and I walked away. He came to my office later and I just pointed to the note. He hung his head in "shame" laughing and then he told me about him and Kayla coming in to mess it up. Rest in peace buddy, you will be missed!

“ Mainly I remember Chris's laughter. He would call me and say "Hello, what did you want, Aunt Ellen?" I would say, "You called me!" He would then say, "No I didn't." Then he would start to laugh and say "Aunt Ellen just pulling your leg." He was not only my nephew but my friend. My condolences to Misty, Barb, Sam, Kayla, and Shawn plus the rest of his family and friends.

“ All of my childhood memories consist of my chris and Misty and my dad at Chris's parents lake house and we would stay the whole weekend and Chris and my dad would take us on the boat and when we would get back he would start a fire so my siblings and I could make s'mores with Misty while u and dad has a beer. Chris you played such a big part in my childhood and I will cherish those memories. He was such a kind,fun, loving , and funny guy you will be missed dearly. Rest in Peace
