

Cindy Bundus

February 16, 1953 - June 6, 2020

Cindy Bundus “Squirrely” 67, of Kankakee, passed away June 6, 2020 at Riverside, by light of the full moon.

She was born in Tulsa, OK, farmers’ daughter of William Morgan and Barbara Morgan. Everybody loved Cindy. She liked to party; Cindy was the Ultimate Flower Child. She retired from Arbys as most popular clerk after 27 years, and she was recognized all over town.

When I met Cindy was the day my life began. A born farmer, Cindy loved our mini-farm, nature, wildlife, boating the Kankakee, her pet squirrels and Siamese cats. A skilled boater; she was my best First Mate in every way.

My dedicated and loving wife for 47 years, she was the best thing that ever happened to me. She was my first girl, my first love, my everything. We met at a park in Tulsa; 3 days later we knew we’d be married. She was a committed lifelong companion, best friend, trusting, too forgiving, feisty, stubborn as a nail, yet full of grace.

Cindy made everything fun. We were a commodity; always together. We loved intensely. Our love is deep as love can be. We depended on each other for everything, functioning as an entity. We had ups and downs, yet in the end our love was tighter than ever before. Cindy was surely a gift of solid gold.

Cindy is survived by husband Robert, brother Bill Morgan, and their father William H Morgan of Wakita OK. plus 2 cats and 2 squirrels. Preceding her in death was mother Barbara.

Her cremains will be scattered throughout the nature she loved. Memorial celebration will be held at a later date; notice to be published. Arrangements by Jensen Funeral Home.

“ *My deepest condolences go out to Cindy's family. I met Bob and Cindy in 1978 and they have been a integral part of our close knit group of friends with alot of great memories and good times together. We will miss her smile and quirky personality but I know God has plans for her in heaven and I will see her again with eternal life in heaven. RIP my little hippy chick. Bruce A. “ ...by the light of the full moon? Of course! She wouldn't have settled for anything less!

She was nice to my kids who delivered the Daily Journal decades ago and that meant a lot to all of us.

Goodbye, Cindy. See you on the other side...

“ Cindy was not only fun-loving, but people-loving, thoughtful, and kind. Not about to be squeezed into anyone's box, she always expressed her individuality with enthusiasm and flair! She was a very loyal wife and friend to my brother Bob, evidenced by her 47-year commitment to him in marriage. She fulfilled her vows - a claim that can be made of very few people of her generation. Her journey on earth now ended, my heart goes out to you, Bob, in your grief. With love and prayers, Gay

“ Remembering Cindy: she had a forgiving heart, an accepting spirit, an outgoing personality, a dangerous toe pincer, and an obsession with bananas. We are so sorry Rob. Tim

“ I met Cindy on Thanksgiving 1977. She and Rob came to my home in Cincinnati to meet with the family as I was engaged to Rob's brother Tim. From that first encounter with her big "Howdy" greeting I saw what a fun loving person she was. She was a great sister-in-law welcoming me into the Bundus clan. She was definitely a favorite with our children. We had many nice get-together s over the years, just not enough of them. We are deeply sorry for your loss, Rob. Prayers and love, Barb Bundus

“ I am at a loss. It hard to fathom I will never hear Bundus call me Lippy again or never get those great hugs and of course all the smooches! She was one of the weirdest, funniest, kindest, and most generous people I have ever worked with. She remembered mine and Eric's anniversary, always asked about my kids and grandkids, and even brought Twizzlers to me still after all these years - I will miss you my friend - may your soul rest in peace!

“ Cindy was my neighbor growing up and I saw her a lot as I worked for her dad while I was in high school and college. It was a delight to be around Cindy. She was always pleasant and she was always ornery.....a good person indeed!

“ One of my childhood memories was Cindy and I washing and walking our show calves. We spent many hours and days together with our livestock.

*I grew up as a country neighbor and visited at Cindy's home as a child.
I remember her smile the most. I enjoyed reading about her life. So sorry for your lost. Ann Bollman*

Cindy was my first niece and she was absolutely beautiful. Her almost white hair and cute little smile is etched in my memories. Over the years she developed her personality and love for her pets and farm animals. It was fun spending some summers on their farm and seeing her love of the outdoors blossom. She was protective of her little brother as he began exploring their surroundings, but enjoyed having him wander around with her. She had nicknames for people, pets and things and it was fun letting her explain how she came up with them. These are just a few wonderful gifts she bestowed on me as memories of her. God's blessings, Cindy, you'll always be in my heart.
