“ Cindy was a dear friend before Covid. We met up and always had a great time. I missed her during that time but I knew we were always friends. So sad to see she passed

“ Cindy was my childhood neighbor and friend. Although I was a little younger, she played with me, and we hung out in each other's yards and basements. She even fought off a bully who was bothering me by shoving him in the gravel. The kid never bothered me again. I was grateful for her friendship during this period of my life. May she rest and peace.
