“ Seen him beat my mother Michelle several times growing up when he was drunk. Great person? No. Alcoholic who abused my mother dearly. Once made her push his Harley from the garage to the front of the house to wash it. Coward is what he was.

“ My sympathies to Curtis’s family and friends, he was the type of man that would go out of his way for a friend but he didn’t tolerate a lot of BS from anyone.

I only knew Curt for a few short years, but never met a more sweet, kind, caring person. He was taken way too soon and I miss hearing his funny stories and soothing voice. May he RIP.
