

David E Hoch

November 5, 1942 - April 21, 2024

David E. Hoch, 81, of Bourbonnais, passed away on Sunday, April 21, 2024, peacefully at home with his three children by his side.

David was born on November 5, 1942, the son of George and Elna (Hurn) Hoch. He was married to the love of his life for 53 years, Carol Hoch.

Dave was last employed at Wisconsin Tissue in Alsip as a millwright until he retired. He grew up on the South Side and was a die-hard Cubs & Bears fan who also loved fishing, playing softball and coaching wrestling. He was a skilled mechanic with a reputation of being able to fix anything. He loved to work on cars and took classes to learn auto-body & auto painting. Dave was a “no fuss” kind of guy and wanted no services after his passing.

David is survived by his 3 children, Raymond Hoch, Donna (Hoch) Lewis, and Christine Hoch; 2 sons-in-law, Matt Lewis, Jason Skyberg; 4 grandchildren, Andy Hoch, Josh Hoch, Jennifer Lewis, Christopher Lewis.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Carol Hoch, and his loyal companion Lucy aka “Best Dog Ever”.

To honor David’s wishes, the family gathered to share his favorite meal, Chicago style pizza.
