

Dawn L. Kurzawa

January 20, 1967 - September 22, 2024

Dawn Lynn Kurzawa, 57, of St. Anne, passed away Sunday, September 22, 2024 at St. Mary's Hospital.

She was born January 20, 1967, in Kankakee, the daughter of Richard Sain and Cynthia O'Cull. On December 21, 2012, she married Donald E. Kurzawa in Kankakee.

Dawn loved to work in the garden, planting flowers and had so many house plants, it looked like a beautiful jungle. She enjoyed reading and only wore crocs. She was known to feed and take care of stray animals, as well as the birds.

She is survived by her mother, Cynthia O'Cull; three children, Crystal (Chris) Moody of Nevada, Joshua (Jeanna) Fodor, and Tyler (Mary) Fodor; 8 grandchildren; uncles and aunts, Thomas (Kathy) O'Cull, Wick (Susan) O'Cull, Sandra (Richard) O'Connor, and Dorothy O'Cull; as well as numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins; best friends, Bobbie Jean (Steve) Sellers and Dawn Fraham-Dieckman.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Donald; father, Richard Sain; maternal grandparents Arthur and Hazel O'Cull; paternal grandparents, Woodrow and Edith Sain.

A celebration of life will be held Saturday, October 5, 2024, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at Jensen Funeral Home, Kankakee.

Memorials may be made to the wishes of the family.

“ I remember some 22 years ago Dawn coming over for a visit. She absolutely loved my dog Buddah...and he loved her. So I went to the bathroom come back and he was giving Dawn love ❤️ I said Buddah what are you doing loving on her...he dropped his head and we both laughed and laughed. She truly love the critters

“ Dawn was my school bus buddy when we both lived in Martinton and attended Donovan Grade School some 50 years ago. Over the years we lost touch but childhood friendships stick with you. I'm saddened to hear of her passing, and her family has my deepest condolences. May her memory be a blessing.
