“ I was a colleague of Demetrius for over 3 years. He and I started during the chaos and stress of a new contract. He took over many hard and undesirable tasks with no complaint. He took ill and still came back to work. He also was in good humor and had no complaints about the bad hand he was dealt. He was always positive. I get a chuckle when I think of how fast he talked which indicated the quickness of his mind. We cannot replace him in any way. My prayers go to the family and I offer my condolences.
