“ It is always hard to lose a loved one and especially when they go to Heaven so young. She is at peace now and has no more pain. You may want her to stay with you, of course, but that was not the plan and it is so hard to understand and to accept. May God wrap his arms around you and comfort you in this time of sorrow. Take care Dan. Thinking of you and all of Diana's family at this time.

“ I was a little boy when I knew her... I lived next door and pretty much injected myself into her family and home... Some of my earliest memories include waiting for her to get off the bus and walking with her down the driveway. My 4 year old heart is broken. Rest in peace, "Dinanah".

Diana was one of my best friends during and after H.S. I was heartbroken when I heard she had passed. We had a lot of good times together that I will never forget. I hope you are at peace. You will be missed by so many. Love you- Mary

“ Growing up we were as close as sisters. We had such good times playing and listening to music, ABBA, Fleetwood Mac, and the 1st time I listened to Billy Joel. Diana meant the world to my Mom, and the feeling was mutual. Sweet Diana, be at peace. XOXO Therese

“ My beautiful Diana Lyn, you are gone too soon. 14 years was not enough. I will be thinking of you everyday for the rest of my life. I will speak of you often, so others will think of you always. I knew early on that you yearned to be back with your mother. I know she is holding you again. I miss your tenderness in my arms, and I completely understand that yearning. I Love You Baby.
