“ Hi grandma....

Since we've lost you I've felt more lost than normal....i keep hearing "well hey there destiny how are you" from when we'd get on the phone.....I wasn't the best grandchild growing up but I try every day to make you guys proud....and I'll keep doing that I'll keep pushing and making you proud....please stay beside me and these kids throughout life....

A few words about my grandma.

She was a spit fire tbh. She was such a strong woman inside and out who had been through so much but was also so resilient. She was a very strict but kind loving grandma and I'm very blessed she took apart in raising me.

Thank you grandma for all you have done. This family wouldn't even exist without you.

Rip Grandma. I love and miss you so much. And so do the kids. I wish you could have stayed with us a lot longer....

“ Mom, there are no words to describe the heartbreak of not having you here, you are missed so much more than words can begin to express or convey.

Thank you for your unconditional Love, as well as for raising us to have morals and respect. I thank God Almighty for blessing me with the beautiful mother that He did.

Until we meet again, you will forever remain in my heart. I Love and miss you, to the moon and back, above and beyond... xoxo
