“ Fond memories of going to Aunt Edith & Uncle George's house to spend night as little girl & play with cousin Debbie. They lived in a big old house on Elm St. and I used to get quite scared driving by the towns notorious haunted house on the corner of River & Schuyler Ave. on the way to their house. I would oftentimes wake at least once during the night & go to her room because I was scared. She would take me downstairs into the kitchen & hold me & give me some cookies & milk while everyone else was sleeping. No wonder I always wanted to go back despite living so close to that creepy blue haunted house. LOL. Be happy & at peace in heaven Aunt Edith.. love Judy
