“ I first met Gary in 2015 on Runescape, an online game. He went by the name Sir Yrag ( yrag is gary spelt backwards) & we use to help each other out a bit in certain skills. He was recuperating from an arm injury back then. His wife was still alive & he was taking care of her. He loved her so very much & many days his little granddaughters would sit on his lap and play Runescape with his character. He adored them. After his wife passed I never saw him on the game, so sent him a message on fb to check up on him, not too long before he passed. He will be deeply missed & I'll always remember the fun we had, & so many things he taught me on Runescape. I'll see you in Heaven Gary, the one & only Sir Yrag. Rest In Peace with your beloved wife.
