“ May you now find the peace Harry that you weren't able to find in those that loved you and cared deeply. It saddens me I was unaware you were sick or I would of been there for you and with you always. My family and I will never forget you nor the times when we were together. You served this country proudly and through hard work provided well for your immediate family. Your sister, Delores and Family

“ So very sorry for your loss Nancy. We all loved Harry. He was the life of our breakfast bunch with his funny Witt and sense of humor. A very good man. He will be missed. Take this time to reflect and remember all the wonderful memories you both created together. May god keep you and your family close in his heart and be by your side in days ahead. My deepest sympathy at this most difficult time in our lives. You know I've been there girl and we are strong!!!! You need anything at all ..even to vent don't hesitate to call you u.
