“ Jack,
I first remember you from visiting Shirley at KCTC. I remember when you became a member of the staff, and being an amazing van driving. Rather you were picking up chili from Wendy's or driving an individual home, you always had me laughing. I remember the many talks we had when you were dropping people off on 5th Avenue and missing you when you retired. I will never forget how you helped get Derek into Shriners, and selling of those onions. But mostly, I remember how you loved Shirley. Shirley, I'm praying for you and your family. I love you.
