“ Jimbo my Friend ... I'm heartbroken to hear of your passing . So many wonderful memories of our USO Days . The love and gentle person you were just makes this seem so surreal. This picture of you serving as our Best Man brings me such heartfelt heartache that you've entered Heaven's Door.

My world was a better place because you were in it . Rest Well

Jimbo 😊 ... I'll forever think of you fondly.

My Prayers to your family & friends 🙏📄.

“ Hey there, I just heard about Jim. My deepest condolences to all. To you, his family, all the people who had the opportunity to cross Jim's path. Jim and I were childhood friends. We laughed, we were bowling together and we were friends from afar. He will always remain a deep part of my life and value his friendship. Floy Estes
