“ Well Jim, like in the Indian Jones movie, you got to the great unknown before me.

I can never thank you enough for welcoming Jennifer into your family and I know you'll be watching over Dawn, Steve and Jennifer from now on.

In Hawaii we sing Aloha Oe when we lose someone we care deeply about

This is for you

Ha'aheo e ka ua i na pali Ke nihi a'ela i ka nahele E hahai (uhai)
ana paha i ka liko Pua 'āhihi lehua o uka

Hui:

Aloha 'oe, aloha 'oe E ke onaona noho i ka lipo One fond embrace,
A ho'i a'e au Until we meet again

O ka hali'a aloha i hiki mai Ke hone a'e nei i Ku'u manawa 'O 'oe no ku'u ipo aloha A loko e hana nei

Aloha Brother

“ I'm heartbroken to hear this news.

I was in the second grade when I moved to the small town of Ashkum and the first person I met was Jim.

We became best friends.

We rode bikes together, played baseball together, and we even walked a few miles through the cornfields to explore his uncle's farm.

There was no better childhood friend than Jim LaVoie.

As we grew older we lost touch.

But recently I received a photo in the mail. It was from Jim and his wife Dawn. They had found a black and white photo of Jim and myself as kids playing in my front yard.

It was such a kind gesture for them to reconnect and send that photo. Jim was a good friend. And good friends should always be cherished.

My prayers go out to Jim and his family. He will be missed.

To Jim, I know you are riding bikes and exploring cornfields in the world beyond this one. Godspeed, my friend.
