“ To: Joe's children, grandchildren, Aunt Carol, Uncle John all my cousins. My sincere condolences go out to each and everyone of you. Joe's life, along with his beloved wife Lisa's were cut way to soon. I know you all have him with you, in your heart and soul, he is part of you, because of each and everyone of your unique relationships you had with him. I remember my cousin always greeting me with a big smile, hug and asking me, "how are you doing kid". There were many beautiful and treasured memories to share when we saw each other in adulthood. Miles may have seperated us in distance but not with the Love that only family knows. I Love you all and will pray for each of you. Know that in time we will all spend eternity, breaking bread together. The peace of the Lord be with you always. 🙏❤️🙏 Sherry and Family
