“ We had fun in learning at Asbury ChildCare Center. One of the things I will remember is Kim's love for ChildCare Crafts. Kim did crafts with the children and at Holiday times she would carve a pumpkin in a unique pose and the children would love to take out the stuff and the seeds and help decorate the pumpkin. Kim also loved doing Christmas crafts with the children as much as they did! Kim held strong with her health issues and God has called her name and welcomed home one of His children into Heaven! Prayers to the family and friends of Kim Page whom we will see one day in Heaven!
