“ This is a shock to find that you're no longer with us. It is inconceivable and it hurts. I am deeply saddened to know you do not get to enjoy your life and make any more memories and that we will not have any more chances to see you here. I always figured I'd still have time to see you again here on earth. I remember staying at your grandparents' house in the Clifton country & playing Super Mario Brothers on the Nintendo. We'd take turns playing. I used to watch a lot more than I played because you all were so good at it. I remember us girls fawning over the New Kids on the Block and clothes shopping with your grandma Gloria. I remember your grandpa Buster telling us scary stories about the wooded area around his & Gloria's home. I remember my mom taking us swimming. I can still see a young & beautiful Marocka in my memory & I will always keep that image in my head and heart. Our families were bonded when we were all young, and throughout our lives we will always have a connection between our families. I give my condolences & pray for comfort for your family and friends during this time of great sorrow.
With love, Jennifer Dickson (Langley)

“ My beloved Friend that I will forever miss and cherish the times of our loves together! I pray that you will have peace and rest for the unfortunate events that have occurred! In the life ahead of us I prayer God will protect and comfort your children and family. I love you best friend! I’m forgiving the ones that trespass against us for god forgives us when we trespass against him! For the rest of our days may you live in our hearts! I’ll miss our adventures you took me on the most! Goodbye for now! See you later! Fly high my friend fly high!

I will forever miss you. It's hard for me having to except that I'll never see you again and as odd as it is it's like I felt an emptiness in my chest that was heavier then I could ever imagine. I can't say goodbye but I can and will say I'll see you later. Nothing could of prepared me for this and whoever it was that took you from us will gave to ansvere for it when it's there turn to be judged. I want to be able to forgive them as God forgives us but I'm not there yet and am working on it so I cam be forgiven as well. I'm mad angry and hurt that your gone and am trying to figure out how I'm going to deal with you being gone. I love you and miss you and forever carry you in my heart. Till we meet again I love you I'll keep you and breath life in your memory

“ Marocka Jean, I knew you when you were first born as an adorable baby girl. I lost touch with you and your mother and your siblings until 10 years ago. You were such a beautiful young woman with plenty of spunk. I pray your wings are on meeting with everyone especially your niece Jesse and Grandma Gloria enjoying your precious love from all left behind and all that are with you now. So hard to believe you left this world, but now you are in no pain and you see the love from many. This is heartbreaking to say Rest In Peace. I love you and you will never be forgotten and forever in my heart ❤️
