“ Years ago Marsha and her mom came to my house to choose a puppy from my litter of 8. When they finally picked the one they wanted, they took her home and named her Buffy. Sent me updates occasionally. They were definitely animal lovers. Rest well Marsha.

“ I have so many memories of Marsha from high school and college and beyond. As adults we didn't always agree on things but we could always agree to disagree. That's a pretty rare find these days. What has impressed me the most about Marsha was that she had a huge and caring heart! I was shocked to read of her passing. My condolences and prayers for your family. She will be missed.

“ Sorry for your loss, you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. I met Marsha at the nursing home, she and Tara would always set up the room where my hubby would say Mass or would play his guitar for the patients. Rest in peace Marsha.
