“ I will never forget the first time I met Jamie. We were just little girls and I sat next to her on the school bus. She said "Hi! I'm Jamie!! I just moved here what's your name?" and it was love at first sight. We sat together every day and became life long friends. She shared her life with me. She later shared her children's and grandchildren's as well. She was so full of love and grace. She filled a room with her beautiful presence and gave so much happiness to everyone she met. She taught me how to dance, she helped me have confidence, she never let me give up and she was my biggest fan. We shared, we laughed, we cried together. She inspired me. To be a better person and a better mother. A better friend and to shine and give more to others. Jamie, you are the best friend, more than I could ever have dreamed of. I will close my eyes and see you singing and dancing and I will hear your sweet voice and laughter always. I can't imagine a day in life without you. I miss you and will tell the world you are my best friend feeeeee ever
