“ Oh Melissa, you were such a sweetheart and I know you are in heaven. I recall the last time we talked it was when they had the shooting at the courthouse and you were concerned cause you knew we had court that day. You always were concerned about me and Clayton. I Know you are at peace now and just know you were loved by me and Clayton! Praying hard for your baby girl too. Its all in God's hands and I know you are too! You will be missed dearly!!!

“ Melissa you will be missed by many. Thank you for trying (without success) to teach me to dance. You had an infectious laugh and those around you would join in. You knew how to sparkle and shine when you wanted to. Never afraid to try new and fun hair colors and styles. You were a friend to many who needed a friend and did so in a non-judgmental way. You are no longer weighted down by troubles of this world, you are free to dance; wildly,colorfully and carefree. Shine on Melissa 💜
