“ Mike I'm sorry for everything these cockroachs have done. Not one of them come to help you. They took your link your debit card. They gave Jennifer a hard time. It was left up to me to take care of you. I picked you up when you fell I cooked for you. I was there for you every day. Trust me brother you will be missed. We had fun these past few years. Now you have your Angel wings and your with mom. That's where you wanted to be. Your in a better place now. No more pain. I love you brother. Till we meet again. 💙

“ Words can't express the sadness our family has had from your passing. But we celebrate a wonderful life lived!! Give my love to Grandpa, Grandma, Danny & David ❤️. This isn't goodbye, but rather, until we meet again. I love you Uncle Mike forever and always.

“ Rest in peace Michael. I already miss you dearly. We could always count on each other for some good laughs together. I am so very grateful for all the great times we had, and boy did we ever have alot of good times. Tony misses you dearly as well. Please watch over us and know that we are, and will be thinking of you everyday. ❤️. Although life took us in different paths sometimes, I know that we at least always told each other how much we loved each other. R.I.P. Little brother.
