“ I remember the times that Aunt Loris and Uncle Willis came to our farm with their kids, Mark, Pat, and Doug. All the fun we would have, watching the guys cook on the grill, and us kids playing baseball, or playing hid and seek in the barn. Pat 'tolerated' her younger cousin and would play with me, bless her heart. Through the years, when I would go with my Mom, (Rose), to Kankakee, we would see Aunt Loris with her daughter Pat, out shopping, and have a good visit. I especially remember the time that Rose and I met Aunt Loris and Pat, for our Mom's 60th Class Reunion for St. Pats. We had a great time. The years go by too fast. I am so sorry for your loss, but please remember, she will never be far away with your precious memories. Keep her in your Heart. Love, Your Cousin Sandy (Petree) Mattingly& Family.
