“ Paul and I walked together for 8th grade graduation. When we became friends on facebok he posted that picture and cracked me up. We hadn't seen each other since 1982 and 2 years ago we all met up at a Grade school reunion. It was like we were right back there. I will miss our conversations on face book and his pictures of him and Colin. R I P my friend. We will have that 2nd reunion we all long for.

“ One of my classmates that I just connected back with after graduating so many years ago I'm glad I got to talk with him again, I'm truly going to miss chatting with him on FB and following his son growing up as a scout mom I wish Colin stays with it as that's what his dad would want and it will open so many opportunities for him later in his life. Paul was an amazing person and a good friend. RIP you'll be missed dearly. God Bless his family.

“ I didn't know Paul personally. I am friends with Toni. One thing that is undeniable is that he loved and adored Colin. Even in weakened health he made every effort to watch Colin play soccer. He made the most of his time to ensure Colin knew he loved him.

“ Being a new girl in a tiny town like St. Anne, you tend to become friends with any neighborhood kids your age when visiting Grandma & Grandpa. Little did we know way back when that the Brace family would be lifelong friends. Bobby was my softball coach, my sister Sam played Donita's flute in band & later, my daughter Jessi played Donita's clarinet. My sister & I attended school with Donita, Paul, Donna & Debbie. Later my sister Stephanie & I babysat for Ebony & Andrew. Our brother Richard was friends with Brandon. Our families have always interacted, & growing up with all of them holds many special memories. As we have to say goodbye to Paul I am saddened because he's taking a part of my childhood with him. My prayers are with the Brace family that they find peace in this hard time. My sincerest condolences to all of you. May Paul rest peacefully

“ My brother was truly one of a kind, although we didn't speak much his last few years but he really new how to make u laugh til u pee'd ur pants. He was the definition of "life of the party" and I will miss him but lk he is in heaven having the time of his life with our father and all the others we have lost the last few years. So paul I hope u know just how much u'll be missed by everyone that crossed paths with you. Forever in my heart always on my mind.. I love you my brother R.I.P. Paul...<3
