“ Aunt Pearl, always my favorite. In the sixty plus years I was in your life, you taught me so much, I didn't, you made me laugh more often than I can count. I still hear your voice calling my mom Ella Mae and yelling Vernon at my daddy because he pulled your and Mom's apron strings as he passed through the kitchen. I still have yet figure out why you and mom canned bushels of tomatoes on a one burner hot plate when we had a perfectly good four burner stove, even at the cage of seven I thought that was a bit odd. Maybe you will tell me when I see you again. I love you and you are always in my heart.

“ Kelly, I just heard about your Mom. So sorry.

Shamu and I used to love visiting her. Maybe he's found her up there and they can play again.

I know it's months later but I hope you are well.
