“ Even though he is actually my dad's 1st cousin (Anthony Uzzardo III), my five sisters and I knew him as Uncle Philly. We shared his passion for horses. He would help our dad take care of them when we were growing up and he taught us a lot about their care. My dad and he were good buds. His kind and gentle nature made him a natural around horses; I think Uncle Philly also had a sixth sense just as they did. He had his mother's eyes (my great grandma Vincenza). His eyes expressed the joy he had in his heart because he loved his work and his family. He himself was a workhorse having a strong work ethic passed down from his father (my great grandpa Antonio) and generations before him. He was a strong man of integrity, honesty and had a passion for life setting a great example to his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren on how to live an authentic life.

He will surely be missed by all who knew him. We thank God for the blessing of having Uncle Philly in our lives all these years and thankful for the promise that we will see him again when we take our places at the banquet table of our Lord. May the perpetual light shine upon him and may he be granted kind admittance to our heavenly home surrounded by all our loved ones that have gone ahead of us. May he rest in peace and the peace that surpasses all understanding surround Aunt Janet and all of us he left behind.

With love and sympathy,

~Tamara Uzzardo Brongiel

“ *So Sorry to hear of the passing of "Philly Boy". I grew up not only knowing him but loved all the stories of his life. I was so happy to have seen him when he was shoeing at Balmoral Race Track a lot of years ago. He recognized me & came right up because I reminded him of my Mom Teresa Marasco. I'm sure he is up there in that big horse pasture in the sky tending to all God's horses. His was a life well lived.....
