“ I lived across the street from this sweet, precious soul. He sat and watched my house all the time and it made me feel so much more comfortable in the neighborhood 😊❤️. He also liked to watch my wind-socks, pinwheels, or anything that blew in the wind. He told me how much fun he had watching those things. He had some kind of little shrine where he said prayers, inside and I brought him flowers for it. He was always so happy over little things like that! He was physically worn out by his age but always so exuberant and happy. I never saw him unhappy. What a special person, I'm so glad I got to know him and of course Ina and Bruce too. Neighbors I will never ever forget. 🙏🌹❤️ Rest In Peace Dear Rey.

“ I have such fond memories of visiting with Ray and Ina in their home. Ray loved his family so very much. He was a good, good man. And his family is a credit to him. Ray will be dearly missed by all.
