“Riding bikes, camaros, horror movies, boys, weddings, new babies then reconnections and friendship across the years. Your spirit lit our world's with love and encouragement now you light heaven, they won't know what hit them. Much love my friend, always. Love to all of Rhonda's family both by birth and by love. She is right there with you through all this. Because she never abandoned anyone in need. She is holding you the tightest right now and shining her love over you.

“ Aunt Rhonda you will be missed for generations to come. A truly selfless, beautiful, strong, devoted, sassy, and kind soul has left us today to be in heaven and spread her wings as a magnificent butterfly! You never ceased to amaze with your giving spirit! Thank you for making our wedding day extra special...providing the something borrowed which will be in our hearts always. We love you and are sending love, hugs, and positive thoughts to every life you've touched! Love, Jaci & John Coke
