“ *When my children were small, they lived for planting and harvest seasons! Every year, when Rick got to the field by our house, my kids would run out to the field armed with fruit snacks and root beer for Rick in exchange for a few passes through the field up in the cab. They talked his ear off, but he was so gracious and caring with them. The kids are grown now, but they still remember all those tractor and combine rides with "Mr. Hoekstra".
Our prayers are with your family.
