“ Rose was an excellent mother . . the best. Her powerful faith and her down-to-earth values have served me well for 70 years. Sometimes, her spiritual training might have interfered with my material progress, but then I remember to store up treasure in heaven and it all averages out in the end. I am deeply grateful for her example to me, her loving care throughout my life and to my wife, Mary, and my son, Lennon. We had some great times in California when she would visit . . . always lots of laughs and fun. We all loved her mucho.

I am pleased that I can rest assured that she is enjoying her heavenly rewards. Thanks, mom. I'll see you on the high side. Tell dad, Grandma Clocksin and all of your siblings and Uncle Johnny, "Hi" for me, too. The list of those I miss is growing too long, too rapidly. :(
