“ Heard through the grapevine about Suzie's passing, and was shocked as she was too young. Last time I saw her and Miriam I was rewarded with the McCabe Family generous sense of humor and warmth for life. I know that knowledge of such kindness has made my world a bigger place, as I'm sure she has touched many others. -Diane Kelch

“ Molly, Logan, Leo, Tom

Being a member of the McCabe for 60 years and watch the kids grow up has been a joy to my life. I will always cherish the memories when your mom was a little girl and Aunt Betty and I was stationed in Great Lakes. We would come to Grandad and Grandma's house for Thanksgiving. The table was always full of food and the table would grow as the kids got older. Fast forward when you were little Molly the memories of you your mom coming to our house brought joy to us all.

Now today your Mother is no longer with us but we have so much to be thankful for and that is each other. We have memories that death can't take from us. I was lucky enough to see your mom become a Mother to you. I know for a fact you were a lucky girl to have a wonderful mom. I now get to see you grow and become a mother. Logan, you and Molly and Leo enjoy your life and know you are loved.

Tom, you were a blessing in Susie's life. Just wish you both had more time together. She loved you very much and always talked to me about what a great grandpa you are to Leo. I will miss the phone calls but I know she is in a better place. God will take care of her now and with a big smile on her face she will look down and say 'Uncle Joe, want some ICE CREAM'?

*Love you,
Uncle Joe & Aunt Betty*

“ This makes me very sad. Suzanne was a courageous fighter. A true joy to know since Molly and my son Michael were classmates in grade school. Loved keeping in touch when she worked at Phillips 66 and Meijer! May God give comfort in the memories you have. HUGS Molly and family.

“ It is good to know that Suzanne is not suffering any longer. I am sure she had a warm welcome into heaven from loved ones who proceeded her. And now for the challenge of getting a seat at one of the McCabe Euchre tables! Slam the cards, call no trump, and enjoy winning.

My heart goes out to Molly and family. You have a wonderful angel looking over you all.
