“ We weren't as close as we were back in the day. That doesn't mean I won't miss you. You were a good friend and a great buddy. You will be missed dearly. My condolences to the family.

Heather I remember when you were little and in your playpen and you still haven't learned how to stand yet and Tom was at your house hanging with your Dad Tom went to your playpen and pulled out a 100.00 bill and said if you stand up you could keep the money and sure as shit you stood up and took the money.. Tom loved you and your family very much.. He definitely will be missed but never forgotten
