“ Our very deepest condolences to the family of dear Tina. She was our neighbor for many years on Doublejack Street, and we developed a very special friendship and bond. She loved her pets and we both knew each others pets and would exchange Christmas presents with each other and our pets every year. We will miss her very much and are so sorry for your loss.

You were our neighbor and friend for many years on Double Jack street. We would spend many days talking about your cats including Cleo and our dogs. Cleo met all the dogs, Tommy, Mia, and Rudy and Eva. And your sister Dana's beautiful Husky. We enjoyed decorating our townhomes, and admiring each other's decorations at Christmas time, as well as exchanging gifts for our pets. When we both moved, we missed the times that we shared. We will never forget you, Tina. Rest in peace, dear friend. 🙏❤️🙏🕊️🕊️
