

Todd William Guindon

December 8, 1970 - April 6, 2019

Todd William Guindon, 48, of Kankakee, passed away Saturday (April 6, 2019) in Kankakee.

He was born Dec. 8, 1970, in Harvey, the son of Dennis Guindon, of Escanaba, Mich., and Kay Ellen Kirkby “Bob” Seitz, of Paducah, Ky. Todd married Jennifer Rainford Guindon on May 9, 2015, in Kankakee.

Todd was a foreman who loved his job at Dave’s Tree Service and the friends he worked with.

The most important thing Todd loved was spending time with his family, playing video games, especially “Grand Theft Auto,” and taking his dog, Gator, for walks at the state park. Todd was an avid Cubs fan and was so excited they won the World Series.

Todd had found Jesus Christ as his savior.

Surviving are his spouse; a daughter, Shelby L. Mines, of Kankakee; brother and sister-in-law, Scott (April) Seitz, of Paducah, Ky.; sister and brother-in-law, Stacey (Ray) Gurley, of Paducah, Ky. Also surviving is his best friend, Benjamin Clear, of Kankakee.

He was preceded in death by an infant daughter, Karen Guindon.

A celebration of life open house with family and friends, will be from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. Friday, April 12, at Jensen Funeral Home, 1200 N. Convent, Suite B, Bourbonnais, IL 60914

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the wishes of the family. Checks may be made out to Shelby Mines.

Please sign his online guestbook at jensenfuneralhome.com.
