

Tony R, Campbell

January 9, 1963 - April 2, 2017

Tony R. Campbell, 54, of Kankakee, passed away Sunday (April 2, 2017) near Gilman, in Iroquois County. He was born Jan. 9, 1963, in Kankakee, the son of Norman R. and Mildred Campbell.

He was a delivery man for Menards.

Tony was a fun loving father, grandfather and friend who would do anything for anyone. He enjoyed spending time with his family, but the love of his life was his grandson, William, or as PaPa called him, Monkeyboy. He enjoyed fishing, his vehicles and loved his dog, Devil.

He loved his customers from his job. Tony also loved bragging about his whole family and spending time and working side by side with his best friend, Alexander Odzana. He always made everyone laugh about his facial features and his tater tots. Tony was very proud of and loved seeing his kids succeed. He attended the Salvation Army Church.

Surviving are his parents, of Kankakee; sons, Justin Campbell (Natalie Walsh), of Baytown, Texas, and Jordan Campbell, of Kankakee; daughter, Kassi Campbell (Lawrence Washington), of Bourbonnais; sisters, Carla Warren, of Kankakee, and Tamela Morton (Scott), of Glendale Heights; two grandchildren, William and Grant Washington; nieces, Krista and Kelli Warren; great-nephews, Mikey Hart and Caden Schlutt; and special friends, Tenka Odzana, Wilma Rowcliff and Lisa Walsh.

Preceding him in death was special friend, Wesley Rowcliff.

Cremation rites have been accorded.

Visitation will from 11 a.m. Saturday until the 3 p.m. memorial service at the Salvation Army, 148 N. Harrison Ave., Kankakee, with Ben and Beth Stillwell officiating. A dinner will follow.

Memorials may be made to the wishes of the family.

“ Have a lot of good memories with Tony "Bear" Campbell
A big group of us would always go skating together. It really didn't matter where we went, we always had fun. Tony was the kinda guy who'd give you the shirt right off his back if you needed it. I was honestly blessed to have him as a friend of mine, and I'll never forget him. Sending prayers for his family members at this very difficult time

“ When my father passed, William Hazzard, Tony was a great support to my mom and all of us. I appreciated his kindness so much. He was such a good man and it makes me have a bittersweet happiness that he's with his cousin, my dad, again. ❤️
