“ Tonya was such a beautiful soul. So glad to have met her and Lori along with the famous Benjamin Buttons a few years back. It's funny how FB can bring people together. Thank you for being there for me thru my bc journey and talking me down after freaking out onmy first mammogram as I don't think you realize just how thankful I was for you at that moment. I will miss you, but I will see you on the other side one day. You rest in peace now.
