

Troy Dean Jacobson

April 22, 1982 - December 10, 2020

Patrolman Troy Dean Jacobson, 38, of Kankakee, was born April 22, 1982 (a week late) and passed on December 10, 2020. For the first time ever, Troy was early.

Troy was an alumni of Sheldon High School and SWIC Police Academy. Troy was a competitor in any sport he could find. He loved trying new things, eating whatever anyone else said was gross, and doing anything someone said he couldn't. Troy was caring, always kind, compassionate, and had a strong moral compass. All of these traits made him a spectacular police officer. Troy was devoted to the community and wanted everyone to feel safe, cared for, and seen. But, Troy's pride and joy were in being a husband and father, which he excelled at daily.

Surviving are his wife, Melany Jacobson and children Keagan, Nole, and Rowan of Kankakee; his mother Tjodie Ann Jacobson of Ashkum; one brother, John (Deb) Wright of Kentwood, Michigan and nephews AJ, Joshua, Isaiah Wright; his aunts and uncles, Uncle Alan (Milagros) Borst, Aunt Becky (George) Dillaha, and Aunt Julie (Ronnie) Lynn; and his cousins, Ronnie Murgach, Michael Borst, Kathy Dillaha, Christopher Dillaha, Lynn Corbin, and Jill Tarro.

Troy was preceded in death by his, father James Edward Jacobson; an Aunt

Mary Jo Murgach; his grandparents Dean and Helen "Jo" Borst, Charles A. and Elizabeth Jean Jacobson.

Visitation will be held from 2pm to 7pm on Thursday, December 17, 2020 at Jensen Funeral Home, at our new location, 3639 E. State Rt. 17 Kankakee, IL 60901. “ Met Troy when he began working midnight for KPD. He was always cheerful guy and when he came into the gas station we would always talk about video games or other nerd stuff. He was great guy. Me and brother enjoy chatting with him when he came to our job while on duty. he came to my brother funeral at beginning of this year and waking up hearing about Troy passing it was unbelievable and shock. R.I.P bro. My condolences to your family during this difficult time.
