“ I will always remember Vanessa for being a woman of strength. My fondest knowing she was with Marissa, right next door...it was a great comfort.

“ I am so lucky to have been able to call you my best friend. All those mornings together drinking coffee (or monster depending on the day). Going garage saleing. Bringing the boys to school and picking them up after. Spending our day at the baseball field watching our boys play tball together. The summers we spent out back swimming and having campfires. Having my beautiful little Maddie and watching u light up as you held her the first time-although we never made it official we always knew u were her Godmother...These arent even close to half of the memories I can think of...No matter what we were doing though u always had that beautiful smile on your face. Fly high beautiful Angel, tell Matt I love him and give him a kiss for me. I love you babygirl!!!

“ I have so many of them. We shared many vacations together, sea world, schliterbahn, oh all the times at the coast. Her and the kids having a blast. One important memory though is the help with my dad Billy Robinson. Do u see him threw the window? Vanessa Do u? Thank u. Luv u and u will be deeply missed.
