“ May I say how saddened I am to hear of Vic's passing...I had no clue he was sick. Vic was my very first Palomino Baseball coach when the league was started some 16 years ago. His boys played for him as well. He loved helping skill the boys in the game, enough so that his team made the playoffs. He will definitely be missed. May the condolences be passed out to the boys and his daughter. Rest In Peace Vic, your job is finished.
