“ First remember Virgil when I delivered Chicago newspapers for the K3 News Agency on S East Ave and he worked inside and wore an apron with 'Big Bopper' written across the front back when that music was popular in the late 50's. When I worked at the K3 PO in the late 70's Virgil was one of the tour supervisors, he was a soft spoken man that everyone liked and respected, it was a pleasure knowing him.

My Dad and I both worked at the K3 PO and had Virgil as a supervisor and Judy as a coworker. When I transferred to Las Vegas, they visited and we had a great time Gambling together. Really feel grateful knowing them and sad they are gone now! Love you, Virgil, RIP
